RACECOURSE NEWBURY

2014

As the story goes, it was a chance meeting with King Edward VII that was the spark that let racing trainer, John Porter, realise his ambition to found a racecourse at Newbury in 1905. And thanks to this slice of good luck, royal approval and the persistence of the great Porter, this stretch of beautiful Berkshire countryside has since witnessed some of the sport's truly unforgettable races, enjoyed by royalty, statesmen and people from all over the UK and beyond. Nowadays its rich heritage, quality year-round racing, stunning views and excellent facilities distinguish The Racecourse Newbury as one of the country's finest and best loved courses. We invite you to browse our 2014 Membership Collection and enjoy racing at The Racecourse Newbury.
